KApro EXs115 „Lucky Funky Keys“

Die KApro EXs115 „Lucky Funky Keys“ Library bietet Ihnen ein Sound-Set aus 12 Programs und 42 stereophone Multisamples für den KORG KRONOS.

Das Musikgenre Funk findet seinen Ursprung ab etwa der Mitte der 1960er Jahre. Afro-amerikanische Musiker schufen den Funk, indem sie Soul, Jazz und R & B miteinander verbanden. Aus dieser Mischung entstand eine neuartige tanzbare und sehr rhythmische Musikform. Der Funk setzt weniger auf Melodie und Harmonie; vielmehr zeichnet er sich durch einen starken, pulsierenden Groove aus, der von Schlagzeug, Bass, Gitarren und rhythmisch gespielten Keyboards getragen wird. Häufig kamen verschiedene elektrische Pianos – gefertigt von einem deutschen Traditionshaus und von zwei nicht minder legendären amerikanischen Firmen aus den USA – zum Einsatz. KApro bringt mit der KApro EXs115 „Lucky Funky Keys“ Library diesen Teil des 1970er Funksounds in Stereophonie in den KORG KRONOS. KApro wünscht Ihnen viel Vergnügen und Inspiration, wenn Sie unsere KApro EXs115 „Lucky Funky Keys“ Library einsetzen.

Ein absolutes MUST HAVE für jeden KRONOS User!

KApro EXs115 “Lucky Funky Keys”

The KApro EXs115 “Lucky Funky Keys” library offers a sound set of 12 programs and 42 stereophonic multisamples for the KORG KRONOS.

Originating in the mid to late 1960s, funk is a music genre minted by African-American musicians who created a rhythmic, danceable form of music through a mixture of soul music, jazz, and R&B. De-emphasizing melody and harmony, Funk excels with a strong groove, governed by drums, bass, rhythmic guitar riffs and rhythmically, often percussively, played keyboards. Frequently, several different electric pianos were used, manufactured by a German tradition house and two equally legendary US companies. With the KApro EXs115 “Lucky Funky Keys” library, KApro transfers this part of the 1970s funk music sound in stereo into the KORG KRONOS. KApro wish you much pleasure and inspiration when you use our KApro EXs115 “Lucky Funky Keys” library.

An absolute MUST HAVE for every KRONOS user!
